“ My favorite vacation spot is Hilton Head Island. My wife, our children, and I have spent many years there, escaping life’s pressures and simply enjoying our time together.

Doug brings a wealth of experience to the leadership of the firm’s Nonprofit Practice. He offers assurance and advisory services to a broad spectrum of organizations, including those in the cultural, artistic, health and human services, educational, environmental, and youth development sectors, as well as private foundations and professional associations. His extensive experience encompasses financial and compliance audits, internal control evaluations, operational assessments, and a range of other advisory services. Additionally, Doug oversees the Quality Control of Assurance Services at the firm.

Outside The Office

Doug resides in Melrose with his wife, Jeanne. In his free time, he enjoys golfing, playing tennis, or hiking in the Fells. Doug is also dedicated to community service, evidenced by his longstanding involvement in charitable activities with nonprofits, church group, and his current position on the Board of Directors of the North Shore Chamber of Commerce.
