“ A ‘perfect’ day to me would be out in the warm, fresh air up in the White Mountains.

Emily joined the firm in 2015. She works with the Director of Marketing & Development on various marketing, employee retention and recruiting efforts, focusing on digital marketing strategies, brand consistency, graphic design, social media management, and website content development and management. She strives to align creative strategies with organizational goals, ensuring meaningful connections both within and beyond the workplace to help keep employees engaged and connected.

Outside The Office

Emily lives in New Hampshire with her husband, son, and daughter. In her spare time she loves to enjoy the outdoors and weekends away up in North Conway, NH with her family.
