

Emily Mastrangelo MSA

SUPERVISOR

 781.914.3340

 e.mastrangelo@johnsonoconnor.com

“ My favorite vacation spot is Boothbay Harbor in Maine. There’s a restaurant there that has the best lobster rolls, and it’s something I look forward to every year!

Emily joined the firm in November of 2020 as a staff accountant, after working in the excise tax practice of one of the Big Four accounting firms. She currently works as a Supervisor in the Tax Department, with an industry focus in tax compliance for individuals, trusts and estates and real estate entities.

Outside The Office

Emily lives in Arlington, MA, and spends most of her time with family and friends. She also enjoys skiing in the winter and playing golf in the warmer months.

Education

- Bachelor of Science in business administration with a concentration in Accounting from Stonehill College
- Master of Science in Accounting from Northeastern University

Professional Affiliations

- American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants