

Lily Rodrigues MSA

SUPERVISOR

 781.914.3400

 l.rodrigues@johnsonoconnor.com

“ If I could have a super power, it would be teleportation. It would make traveling so much easier!

Lily joined the firm in February 2023 as a Client Accounting Services Department Supervisor. She has over five years of experience in public and private accounting, working with closely held companies and their owners with bookkeeping, sales tax, and tax returns.

Outside The Office

Lily lives in New Jersey with her husband. She enjoys spending time with her pets, friends, and family. She loves visiting new towns, dining at restaurants, trying new cuisine, and attending concerts.

Education

- Bachelor of Science with a major in finance from Kean University
- Master of Science in Accounting from Kean University

Professional Affiliations

- American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants

RELATED SERVICES

Accounting & Bookkeeping