“ A “Perfect” day for me consists of watching a Formula 1 race with a cup of coffee, throwing a dart on a map and exploring the area for some good food, hiking a mountain to enjoy the view and a beer at the top. My perfect day ends with some ice cream!

Matthew joined the Firm in October 2024 as an Accounting Associate. Matthew has previous internship experience in public accounting, and he also has experience in underwriting.

Outside The Office

Outside of work, Matthew enjoys watching sports, spending time outside, playing golf, traveling, and trying new breweries. He also enjoys spending time with his friends and family.
